DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to the amendment filed May 21, 2010 for the above identified patent application.

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed July 9, 2010 does not comply with 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c) because: the identifying serial number 10/599,075 is wrong and must be changed to 10/599,079.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422

F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-6, 8, and 10 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims over the claims of U.S. Patent No. 7,674,045. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they are of overlapping scope.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-6, 8, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a. Claim 1, the limitation "ball pockets which are adjacent to one another and are delimited from one another by at least one side wall and by at least one side rim" does not appear to be accurate. Referring to the Figures, it is understood the pockets are delimited from one another by the webs 8. Further, it is understood the webs connect the side rim 9 and the side wall 14. Appropriate correction is required.

b. Claim 1, the limitation "the side wall having an approximately uniform wall thickness" is not fully understood as to what dimension is considered the thickness dimension. For example, is the claimed thickness dimension measured in a radial direction of the bearing or is the thickness dimension measured in the axial direction of the bearing. Further, is applicant attempting to define the side wall having a uniform thickness along the entire circumferential length of the side wall or is applicant attempting to define the side wall having a uniform thickness at a particular cross section thereof. Appropriate correction is required.

c. Claim 1, the limitation "starting from the webs and the side rim which has a uniform radial thickness, running on the circumferential side delimiting the ball pockets axially opposite the side wall" is awkwardly worded making the metes and bounds of the desired patent protection unclear.
